never moves
but is always moving
never eats
but is always growing
follows pattern
but is always changing blood flows up
flesh frequently falling

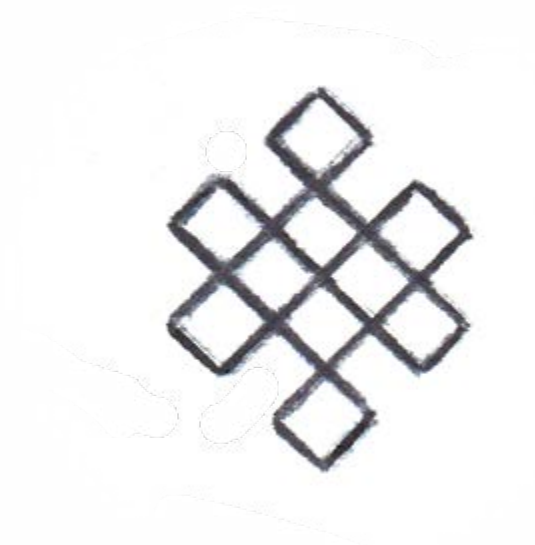

colourless case
seamless embrace
golden core
possibly more

We are identical twins
with very different personalities.
Behold one with most senses,
the other only audibly.
Both of us stand guard
and protect where we come from.
One of us is quiet, calloused.
The other? Communication.

Circle front
Square back
Bright top
Insides compact

Two-toned, turning insides.
Three-faced, thicker outside.
Many marks, such small space.
One message finds its place.
